Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 20, 2018, Prothena Biosciences Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Prothena Corporation plc (together with its subsidiaries, “Prothena”), and Rentschler Biopharma SE entered into a Termination and Release Agreement to the Commercial Supply Contract (the “Termination Agreement”). The Commercial Supply Contract (the “Supply Contract”) was entered into on November 9, 2016 by and between Prothena Therapeutics Limited, which subsequently merged into Prothena Biosciences Limited, and Rentschler Biotechnologie GmbH, predecessor to Rentschler Biopharma SE (together with its predecessor, “Rentschler”).

Under the Supply Contract, Rentschler agreed to manufacture and supply bulk drug substance of NEOD001, Prothena’s investigational monoclonal antibody for the potential treatment of AL amyloidosis, to Prothena for worldwide commercial sale purposes if Prothena applied for and received regulatory approval to market NEOD001. Because Prothena has discontinued development of NEOD001, it has elected to terminate the Supply Contract.

Prothena had previously placed binding purchase orders with Rentschler in order to meet specified lead times in the event Prothena applied for regulatory approval to market NEOD001. Under the terms of the Supply Contract, Prothena is obligated to pay cancellation fees for those now cancelled purchase orders, unless Rentschler is able to utilize for another customer the manufacturing slots reserved for such cancelled orders (which Rentschler is obligated to use commercially reasonable efforts to do).

If not so utilized by another Rentschler customer, Prothena would be obligated to pay to Rentschler a cancellation fee of up to €7.8 million at such time that the manufacturing slots reserved by Prothena would have been utilized by Prothena. Under the terms of the Termination Agreement, Prothena and Rentschler have agreed that Prothena will pay a cancellation fee of €4.1 million within 15 days of receipt of an invoice from Rentschler, in full and final settlement of any and all payments owed by Prothena under the Supply Contract.

The foregoing description of the material terms of the Termination Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Termination Agreement, which the Company intends to file as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2018.
